THE BIRTH OF MODERN POLITICS

Andrew Jackson, John Quincy Adams
★ and the Election of 1828 ★

“The Majesty of the People had disappeared, and a rabble, a mob, of boys...women, children, scrambling fighting, romping. What a pity what a pity! No arrangements had been made no police officers placed on duty and the whole house had been inundated by the rabble mob....Cut glass and china to the amount of several thousand dollars had been broken....Ladies fainted, men were seen with bloody noses and such a scene of confusion took place as is impossible to describe, those who got in could not get out by the door again, but had to scramble out of windows....But it was the People’s day, and the People’s President and the People would rule....”

“...God grant that one day or other, the People, do not put down all rule and rulers. I fear, enlightened Freemen as they are, they will be found, as they have been found in all ages and countries where they get the Power in their hands, that of all tyrants, they are the most ferocious, cruel and despotic. The noisy and disorderly rabble in the President's House brought to mind descriptions I had read, of the mobs in the Tuileries and at Versailles, I expect to hear the carpets and furniture are ruined, the streets were muddy, and these guests all went thither on foot.”

(Excerpt from Margaret Smith's letter to Mrs. Kirkpatrick, March 11, 1829)

LIFE OF THE PARTY

Luke 14:1-6 (ESV): “One Sabbath, when he went to dine at the house of a ruler of the Pharisees, they were watching him carefully. 2 And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy. 3 And Jesus responded to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, ‘Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?’ 4 But they remained silent. Then he took him and healed him and sent him away. 5 And he said to them, ‘Which of you, having a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?’ 6 And they could not reply to these things.”

MAIN POINT

PEOPLE

ARE NOT

PROPS.

LIFE OF THE PARTY

Ephesians 6:9 (NIV): “And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.”

LIFE OF THE PARTY

Luke 14:7-11 (ESV): “Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, 8 ‘When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, 9 and he who invited you both will come and say to you, “Give your place to this person,” and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place....”

LIFE OF THE PARTY

“...10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, “Friend, move up higher.” Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.””

Luke 14:12-14 (ESV): “He said also to the man who had invited him, ‘When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. 13 But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, 14 and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just.’”

LIFE OF THE PARTY

Luke 14:15-24 (ESV): “When one of those who reclined at table with him heard these things, he said to him, ‘Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!’ 16 But he said to him, ‘A man once gave a great banquet and invited many. 17 And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, “Come, for everything is now ready.” 18 But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, “I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.”...”

LIFE OF THE PARTY

“...19 And another said, “I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.” 20 And another said, “I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.” 21 So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, “Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.”...”

LIFE OF THE PARTY

“...22 And the servant said, “Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.” 23 And the master said to the servant, “Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.””
